34 Unmissable Gallery Shows to See in New York City This November

Here's what you'll be doing Thursdays in November.

Presented by Cartier

The editors at artnet News searched New York City high and low for the most exciting, bizarre, and thought-provoking gallery exhibitions this November. From Chelsea to the Lower East Side, we've got you covered.

11. “(The Ray Lee Project Vol. 1) NDD Immersion Room” by Rachel Lee Hovnanian at Victori + Mo

During Armory Week, Rachel Lee Hovnanian posed as Ray Lee, a male artist, when she presented the NDD Immersion Room at the SPRING/BREAK Art Show. Now, she is showing the piece under her real name, inviting viewers to surrender their phones before one by one entering a dark room that has been transformed into a forest, complete with fallen leaves and the sound of crickets. In order to combat so-called “Nature Deficit Disorder,” and create a calming sensation, at least a 10-minute session is recommended.

56 Bogart Street, Brooklyn, November 3–December 22, 2017; opening reception, 6 p.m.–9 p.m.
