Julia Mandle and Gayle Wells Mandle

May 29 - June 22, 2014

Reception: Thursday, May 29, 6-8 p.m.

Artists Panel with Professors: Friday, May 30, 5-6:30

MCLA Gallery 51 opens its first summer show with the work of internationally renowned artists, Gayle Wells Mandle and Julia Mandle. In a dynamic collaboration, the mother/daughter team installs a stunning exhibition that examines socio-economic issues through multiple mediums that include large-scaled photography, painting, drawing, embroidery and sculpture. The Tang Museum at Skidmore in Saratoga Springs will be showing work by the artists concurrently.

MCLA Gallery 51 is a program of MCLA's Berkshire Cultural Resource Center.

The gallery is open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and is located at 51 Main St. North Adams, MA. For more information, please call (413) 664 8718
