

New York 2013

Newsletter Map Apps

Fairs Exhibitions Events Art Spaces Leisure Agenda Home

< The Wonder Cabinet

Shiva Ahmadi: Apocalyptic Playland >

Farideh Lashai: Prelude to Rabbit in Wonderland

Leila Heller Gallery

Share this article

< Facebook

< Twitter

< Stumbleupon

< Pinterest

< Email

Leila Heller Gallery is pleased to present Farideh Lashai's Prelude to Rabbit in Wonderland, an installation which consists of sound elements and a projected animation on a painting. The artist makes reference to an Iranian literary history, where symbolic figures—this time the artist and a rabbit—appear and reappear in hopes of escaping tyrannical suppression of free expression.

Artists: Farideh Lashai

Open: Thursday, 28 March 2013

Close: Saturday, 27 April 2013

Address: Leila Heller Gallery, 568 West 25 Street, Chelsea, Manhattan

Mail: info@leilahellergallery.com

Web: Leila Heller Gallery

Opening hour: Tues - Sat | 10 am - 6pm; Monday by appointment

Closing day: Mon

Photo credits: Farideh Lashai Catching the Moon (Still), 2012 Sound and projected

animation in stainless steel water well 4 min. 30 sec., 25.1 in diameter x 27.5 in (64 cm diameter x 70 cm). Courtesy of the artist and Leila Heller Gallery, New York