Moataz Nasr: Broken Patterns

October 29 - December 23, 2015

DESCRIPTION

"Broken Patterns" will mark artist Moataz Nasr's first solo exhibition of works in the United States. The display will feature his new installations, as well as his iconic sculptural, mixed media, neon and video works from his past series which deal with the reimagining of pervasive socio-political and historical contexts in the Middle East. Showing complex cultural processes currently underway in the Islamic world, Nasr's work surpasses idiosyncrasies and geographical limits by voicing the worries and torments of the region. The heightened anxiety currently underway is reflected especially in Nasr's new work "Shattered Glass."
