

Dubai Art exhibition

Plan to visit At 9:15am Sunday 28 May, 1967, an exhibition by Reza Aramesh that presents a sculptural exhibition that specifies the time and date of a particular event, but not the location, allowing the viewer to be part of the intimacy of the scene, searching to find the commonality of human suffering. Pictured: Action 186

Daily until January 4, 10am-7pm, Saturdays to Thursdays (closed Fridays), Leila Heller Gallery, I-87, Alserkal Avenue, Al Quoz, Dubai, 056 831 3520, www.leilahellergallery.com

Abu Dhabi Festive market

Visit the annual Feline Friends Winter Festival, which aims to create awareness for support of the street cats of Abu Dhabi with a fun day out featuring more than 100 vendors selling art and handicrafts for Christmas and holiday shopping. There will also be entertainment from choirs and singing groups, raffles, food stalls, a children's activity corner, and even a visit from Santa Claus. Plus, it will snow every 20 minutes.

Today, 1pm to 8pm, free entry, football ground at American International School of Abu Dhabi, Abu Dhabi, www.felinefriendsfestival.com

Dubai Electronic dance m

Experience the electronic- the Grass featuring the the and showcasing performers Magda, DJ Hell and Matias Aguiar, art, fashion and food offerings.

Today, 5pm-3am, from Dh180, Dubai, www.grooveonthegrass.com

TODAY'S TOP 10

Your guide to activities
across the Emirates

Abu Dhabi Science Festival and learn about science in workshops, shows, and activities designed for specific age groups. Activities include workshops such as Digital Playground. Al Dig Up a Dinosaur and Body

From 26, 4-9pm on weekdays; 10am-2pm on Fridays; 2-9pm on Saturdays; Dh10 for children ages 4 and younger, Umm Al Quwain; Al Ain Zoo, Al Ain, www.abudhabifestival.ae

Where to Find Them is based on the same name by JK Rowling, who wrote the screenplay. A spin-off of the Harry Potter series stars Eddie Redmayne as Newt Scamander, a wizard who works at the Ministry of Magic, and is the world's first wizard to be a Muggle. He is eventually required reading at Hogwarts. The film stars Katherine Waterston, Johnny Flynn, Ezra Miller, Colin Farrell and Zoe Lister-Jones.

Available across the UAE, including Star Cinemas, Cine Royal Cinemas, Reel Cinemas and Novo Cinemas. (PG-13)