The ongoing special exhibition celebrating the popularity of the African film industry, 'Nollywood Portraits: A Radical Beauty' at Museum of Contemporary Photography, Chicago, will end soon. It's your last chance to see the photographs of some of the most popular actors of Nollywood.

A total of 64 photographs taken by Iké Udé during his visit to Nigeria in 2014, is being showcased. The photographs feature renowned screen icon Genevieve Nnaji, veteran actor Richard Mofe-Damijo, established actor/director Stephanie Okereke, maverick filmmaker Kunle Afolayan, as well as the next generation of rising stars.

The exhibition is on view at Museum of Contemporary Photography, at Columbia College Chicago, 600 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, IL 60605. For details, visit, www.mocp.org
