Opening: Zaha Hadid at Leila Heller Gallery

You may be familiar with the late starchitect Zaha Hadid via her designs for the Aquatics Center for the London Olympics or her recent vision for the Al Wakrah stadium in Qatar. However, Hadid's designs also extended to the home. Chelsea gallery Leila Heller will feature product designs by the architect (who died in March 2016) in a survey of works from the 1990s through 2015.
