Editors' Picks: 12 Things to See in New York This Week

There's plenty of art to see once you've recovered from Thanksgiving dinner.

11. "Ran Hwang: Sacred Space" at Leila Heller Gallery

By hand-making hundreds of thousands of buttons and affixing them to Plexiglas panels, Hwang compares the act of fitting into contemporary society to the stillness and perfection of each pin resting—almost meditating—in its place within her artworks. This show intends to create a sacred space amid the madness of the contemporary times.

Location: 568 West 25th Street
