

LEILA HELLER GALLERY.

NEW YORK

CHELSEA ARTIST TOUR

SPONSORED BY

MAY 9, 10 & 11

CHELSEA GALLERY DISTRICT, NEW YORK CITY

Self-Guided Tour

Roll up your sleeves and join the fun as a group of artists invite you to participate in works of art-in-progress. Friday, May 9–Sunday, May 11. No Ticket Required

Rachel Hovnanian

511 WEST 25TH STREET, SUITE 601

C.R.E.E.P.S

Conceptual artist Rachel Lee Hovnanian creates C.R.E.E.P.S., a voyeuristic illusory performance art and video piece alluding to issues of watching and being watched. View the C.R.E.E.P.S. show from the High Line between 23rd and 25th Streets on May 9, 7–10 p.m.

Hovnanian will open the doors of her studio to the public for two hours. People are invited to participate in a collective performance of C.R.E.E.P.S. above the High Line. Participants will be guided into the studio in a group of four for a 10-minute time slot. Bring your digital devices and be a C.R.E.E.P. on May 10, 3–5 p.m. 511 West 25th Street.