Rachel Lee Hovnanian: "Plastic Perfect" at Leila Heller Gallery

September 4 – October 18

Opening: September 4, 6–8pm

568 West 25th Street

In "Plastic Perfect," Hovnanian revisits obsession, narcissism, and intimacy in a collection of interactive installations, sculpture, video, and photography to explore where our natural and synthetic worlds collide. The artist takes us back 50 years to answer questions about digital technology today and its future trajectory, challenging viewers to reevaluate his or her own relationship with the medium.
